

ADVISES FOLLOWERS TO BOLT CONVENTION

Chicago, Ill., June 20.—Colonel Roosevelt, speaking to his followers at the Congress Hotel, after the bolt from the committee on credentials, said:

"I am speaking to you," said Colonel Roosevelt, "as a man to whom some of you have done the honor to state that you wish to nominate for President. When I went into the race I made my appeal to the people. Most of the delegates were chosen at direct primaries by the people. I made my fight squarely. I said, and some of you heard me, that if the people decided against me, I would have nothing to say, but that if the people were for me and the politicians tried to cheat me out of the nomination, I would have a great deal to say."

"I went before the people and I won. Now the national committee and a portion of the convention which is made a majority only by the aid of delegates not elected but chosen by the national committee, are trying to cheat me out of the nomination. They can't do it. As far as I am concerned, it makes no difference. But it is not me they are cheating; it is the people, the rank and file of the Republican party."

"I did not want to give you any advice, as I preferred to let you decide what to do, but I am going to give you my advice."

Governor Deane today introduced a very moderate resolution in dealing with the four fraudulent states. It asks that the delegates from California, Washington, Texas and Arizona should not be permitted to vote, and that the three States stolen bodily—Washington, Arizona and Texas—should not put their representatives on the credentials committee. That motion was voted down by substantially the same vote that elected Root over McGovern. In each case the majority was a majority only because the votes of the fraudulently seated delegates were counted.

"Mr. Root received seventy or eighty stolen votes," continued Mr. Roosevelt. "Mr. Deane's resolution was beaten to-day by fraudulent votes which by the votes from Texas, Arizona, Washington and the two fraudulent votes from California. If those votes had been changed, the resolution would have been carried."

"To add insult to injury, the committee on credentials organized by choosing as chairman Mr. Devine, the national committee man who had taken part in the very party theft on which he had passed a member of the national committee."

"As far as I am concerned, I am through. I hope that to-morrow, when you go back to the convention, you will not once introduce a resolution that not one of those fraudulently seated delegates shall vote on any question in the credentials committee or in the convention."

"Don't let them down again if they beat you by fraudulent votes. There is no use in voting to cut out the fraudulent votes and then being beaten by the fraudulent votes and say you are very sorry, and go home. I hope you will then take the position that you decline longer to submit to having any delegates fraudulently seated allowed to sit as judges on their own cases or vote on the report of the credentials committee."

"I hope you will refuse any longer to recognize a majority thus composed as having any title in law or morals to be called a Republican convention. We have by fair means elected a clear majority of the delegates, and I hope that you will not permit our opponents, having failed by fair means, to beat you by foul means, and swindle the people out of the victory that they have won."

"If you are voted down I hope you, the real and lawful majority of this convention, will organize as such, and you will do it if you have the courage and loyalty to your convictions. Let's find out whether the Republican party is still the party of the plain people, the people of the United States, or the party of the bosses and the professional politicians acting in the interests of special privileges.

"If you want my advice I would advise that you place no further trust in me. I would advise you to wait no longer. I would advise that you do not permit yourselves to be committed in any further way, shape or form, by further association with these men as long as they retain control of the Republican convention by means of a majority composed in an essential part of fraudulently seated delegates, who have not the slightest right or title to represent the rank and file of the Republican party, and are without the slightest right or title to seats in the Republican convention."

Governor Johnson reached the Florence room a few minutes after 11. Roosevelt had concluded his address. Many were leaving the room when Governor Johnson entered. A score of men seized him and rushed him to a table. Immediately the room filled up again with delegates.

"Gentlemen," Governor Johnson began, "You have heard what we are going to do to-morrow. We are going to stop dilly dallying with this robbing convention. We are going in there to fight, and we are prepared for the birth of a new Republican party which will nominate for President Theodore Roosevelt."

"And he will be elected," was shouted in chorus from the delegates.

As Governor Johnson proceeded some one in the crowd shouted the name of "Hadley."

"Hadley, Hadley," was the cry. A mingled roar of cheers and hisses greeted this, but quiet was soon restored and Governor Johnson proceeded.

"This new party, which is inevitable, will be an honest party," he continued, "a party that will not countenance robbery, thievery and dishonesty such as we have experienced here."

The report was everywhere this morning that the Missouri delegation had decided to support Governor Hadley for President, and would vote for him on the first ballot. It was said this decision included both the Taft and Root members, and that the delegation would cast thirty-five votes for Hadley, the Governor himself, the thirty-sixth member, voting as he pleased.

The rumor later was declared untrue. A caucus will be held on the floor of the convention to-day. The vote of Roosevelt's declaration provoked a scene of disorder in the corridors of the Congress Hotel. A crowd of Taft delegates burst into the hall, shouting and singing: "Glory, glory, Hadley, Hadley!"

In every quarter the Taft people made no secret of their elation. After 11 o'clock the race was unabated.

WINS SPEED AND SMOKE TEST.

Destroyer Mayrant Makes 30.5 Knots in Two-Hour Run.

Newport, R. I., June 19.—Making a rate of 30.5 knots in a run of two hours at full speed, the destroyer Mayrant, under Lieutenant Charles Nelson, won in the speed and smoke elimination tests held here yesterday. The Waikiki, 30.5, was second. The Perkins, with a broken blower, was placed third, with a record of 30.3 knots. The destroyer Patterson holds the navy speed record with 32.9 knots, under conditions similar to those imposed here.

Speed conditions were two hours, straightaway. Four hours was the time for the smoke elimination trials. Smoke elimination is regarded as important for the destroyer showing the least smoke would be the most useful in action.

The Mayrant did not show any smoke. The Waikiki showed smoke about eight minutes.

Signs Eight-Hour Day Law.

Washington, June 19.—President Taft today signed the act of Congress limiting to eight hours the daily service of laborers and mechanics employed in government work, and immediately afterward issued an executive order exempting any contracts in connection with the Panama Canal until January 1, 1915. The canal will be finished before that date, according to the expectations of the engineers.

GOVERNMENT MAY IGNORE ESTENOZ

Is Expected to Pay No Attention to Request of Cuban Rebel Leader.

Washington, June 19.—This government probably will take no notice of the request of the Cuban rebel general Esteno, that the United States name a mediator to settle the present trouble. American Consul Holaday at Santiago probably will be instructed to pay no attention to the request.

Speaker Ferrera, of the Cuban House of Representatives, expects to leave Washington at once to return to Havana, by way of New York. Senator Ferrera was sent to this city to assure the authorities that the Cuban government is fully capable of suppressing the uprising in the Eastern end of the island and that there is no occasion for intervention by the United States.

He left apparently well satisfied with the results of his mission. He has issued a statement in regard to the situation in Cuba in which he charges that the present uprising was organized and is being promoted by persons financially interested in the destruction of Cuban independence, and says the matter will be investigated by the courts of law of Cuba.

"Out of this struggle," said Speaker Ferrera, "we will derive two favorable results. One is the evidence that the Cuban government can easily overcome a rebellion. The other is that the government of the United States proceeds with great prudence and in favor of the constituted order. In the future our policy will be of conciliation toward the great mass of negroes, but energetic and firm as regards the agitators."

Cuban Flier Ordered Home.

Hammontonsport, N. Y., June 19.—Lieutenant Arsenio Ortiz, of the Cuban army, who has been here for several weeks studying aviation, has been recalled to take the field against the insurgents in Cuba. The young officer expects to return at the close of the outbreak to complete his course of instruction.

CONVENTION MUST SETTLE SOUTHERN REPRESENTATION.

Chicago, June 19.—With the submission of a minority report to-night, signed by eleven members of the rules committee, the question of reduction of Southern representation in Republican National Conventions will be put squarely up to the convention to-morrow. The announcement was made at midnight by W. H. Coleman, the member from Pennsylvania, whose resolution providing for such reduction had been tabled early in the evening by the committee.

LONG EXPECTED CRASH HAS COME

cutive in the convention to-day, together with the sudden turn in affairs, was said to have strengthened their belief that the time was ripe for bringing forward a compromise candidate. In the meantime there was much talk of Justice Charles E. Hughes, of New York, as the candidate of the convention. Some of the leaders ventured to suggest a ticket of Hughes and Hadley.

All sorts of wild rumors were current as the crash came.

The fact that the Taft forces strengthened their hold on the convention in the test vote to-day, getting 561 votes as against 558 on yesterday, threw the opposition forces into something of a panic. The Roosevelt vote in the convention to-day was 510, but it was realized that twenty-six votes from Wisconsin, ten from Iowa and ten from North Dakota must be deducted from that on a presidential ballot, while but few of the Taft votes could be gained.

Taft People Exultant.

The Taft people were exultant to-night. They denied intimations from the Roosevelt aide that they were considering a compromise candidate and asserted that with a tightening of the lines it was apparent that President Taft would win the nomination on the first ballot with something to spare.

Senator Dixon declared to-night that one final appeal might be made to the membership of the convention. "We shall have exhausted then every legal and moral duty devolving upon us. The future will have to take care of itself."

The Taft forces to-night said they were prepared for an attempt by the Roosevelt people to hold a convention within the convention hall, and had taken steps to prevent "any such disorder."

It was said that 500 policemen and 800 assistant sergeants-at-arms would be stationed in the convention hall to prevent disorder and would do so at any cost.

It was said some of the Roosevelt leaders would plead with the convention to-morrow to instruct the credentials committee to grant more time for a hearing of the contests.

Colonel Roosevelt, it was said, would be present in the convention hall at the time, and that while he would have no legal standing in the convention, he might be swept into the fight by his followers.

Colonel Roosevelt counseled delay at a conference of his supporters just before midnight. He asked them to adjourn until later in the night, when he would have more facts to lay before them.

EVELYN DOES NOT RECOGNIZE HARRY

White Plains, N. Y., June 19.—Evelyn Thaw as a witness for the State in its effort to keep her husband, Harry K. Thaw, in the Matteawan Asylum, repeated in a crowded courtroom here this afternoon her story of the series of sensations which culminated in the murder of Dr. Elmer White.

Her testimony covered her relations with Thaw from the time, ten years ago, when he first sought acquaintance with her as a chorus girl, his proposal of marriage in Paris three years later, his rape when she told of an earlier attack upon her by White, the Thaw marriage, his constant reversion to her relations with White, and the shooting of White on the Madison Square Garden roof. She had not touched upon the later mental condition of her husband when the hearing was adjourned until to-morrow.

Men and women filled the courtroom to overflowing. She looked her husband squarely in the face as she took the stand, but no sign of recognition passed between them. Thaw kept his eyes on her throughout the testimony, but displayed no emotion.

RAILWAYS ARE BOOMING.

Canadian Car Manufacturers Unable to Keep Up With Orders.

Ottawa, June 19.—The Canadian railways are so prosperous that the Canadian car manufacturers are unable to keep up with their orders for new equipment. General Manager Leonard of the Canadian Pacific has submitted a statement to the railway commission declaring that the company "finds itself in a curious position in that it cannot get car manufacturers to take its money for cars required for its new equipment."

"All the car shops in the country are behind in filling orders, and the present shortage of rolling stock is largely due to inability of makers to keep up with orders. Our directors recently authorized an expenditure of $10,000,000 for cars, but we are unable to find any one to take all that money."

The roads have been obliged to place orders for more than half the cars required with United States manufacturers.

Health in POSTUM

There's no injurious Caffeine (the drug in tea and coffee) or other harmful ingredient in this famous Table Beverage.

Thousands of housewives are learning that not only economy of purse, but better health, follows the change to Postum.

Among the many common ailments caused by thoughtless habits of living are headache, listlessness, indigestion, irritability, sleeplessness and other disagreeable symptoms of disturbed nerves, digestion and circulation, often due to tea and coffee drinking.

If interested in health and the good things that naturally go with it, why not try a package of Postum from your grocer.

For seventeen years Postum has proven a good friend to former tea and coffee drinkers who felt something was wrong, but didn't know the cause.

If this fits you—

Think it over.

"There's a Reason"

AN OLD TIMER
Has Had Experience.

A woman who has used Postum since it came upon the market knows from experience the wisdom of using Postum in place of tea or coffee if one values health and a clear brain. She says:

"At the time Postum was first put on the market I was suffering from nervous dyspepsia, and my physician had repeatedly told me not to use tea or coffee. Finally I decided to take his advice and try Postum. I got a package and had it carefully prepared, finding it delicious to the taste. So I continued its use and very soon its beneficial effects convinced me of its value, for I got well of my nervousness and dyspepsia."

"My husband had been drinking coffee all his life until it had affected his nerves terribly, and I persuaded him to shift to Postum. It was easy to get him to make the change, for Postum is so delicious. It certainly worked wonders for him."

"We soon learned that Postum does not exhilarate or depress and does not stimulate, but steadily and honestly strengthens the nerves and the stomach."

"To make a long story short, our entire family continued to use Postum with satisfying results as shown in our fine condition of health."

Better health follows the use of Postum in place of tea and coffee, sometimes in a very marked manner. "There's a Reason."
